INTRODUCTORY REMARKS

Mayor Geiger recognized Former Mayor Nancy Greenwood in attendance.

Mayor Geiger stated that the community is mourning the passing of Mrs. Joan Schmelig, President of the Chesterfield Chamber of Commerce, on August 6. Mayor Geiger said that Mrs. Schmelig built the Chamber of Commerce membership to more than 900 businesses. She developed the Chamber into one of the largest and most active chambers in the region. Mayor Geiger said that Mrs. Schmelig's main goal was to make Chesterfield better and she accomplished this with her incredible energy and dedication. Mayor Geiger extended his sympathy to Dick Schmelig, husband of Joan Schmelig, and their family.

City Administrator Mike Herring stated that Joan Schmelig was among the first people he met after the City was incorporated, in 1988. He noted that the Chamber of Commerce was the only city-wide organization in place at that time and much of what happened, in Chesterfield, revolved around the Chamber. Mr. Herring said that Mrs. Schmelig had the ability to understand/recognize that Chesterfield's future success would largely depend upon the ability of the Chamber and City Hall forming a partnership, working together for our community. He said that Mrs. Schmelig was a highly-visible and vocal cheerleader for Chesterfield, always looking for opportunities to enhance our community and challenging everyone to be better. Mr. Herring said that Mrs. Schmelig was a significant reason for much of Chesterfield's success and will be sorely missed.

Councilmember Barry Flachsbart said he attended high school with Dick Schmelig and has known Joan and Dick for a long time. He said that Mrs. Schmelig always brought the Chamber's Board and the City Council together and we will honor her memory by continuing this relationship.

Mayor Geiger stated that Mr. Phil Scissors, Secretary of the City's Police Personnel Board, passed away on August 5. Mayor Geiger stated that Mr. Scissors was a member of the Police Personnel Board for about nine years and volunteered his services in the community. Mayor Geiger extended his sympathy to Mrs. Judi Scissors, wife of Phil Scissors, and their family.

Mayor Geiger recognized Boy Scout Tanner Caldwell, from Troop 554, and Boy Scout Patrick Enderle, from Troop 809, who are both working on their "Citizenship in the Community" badge. Mayor Geiger invited Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Enderle to meet with him, following the meeting, with any questions they might wish to ask.

Mayor Geiger announced that Baxter Road was closed at Edison Road, beginning today, August 15. This is a Corps of Engineers project and they have indicated that the road could be closed for 60-70 days.

Mayor Geiger next announced that City Hall will be closed on Monday, September 5, in observance of Labor Day. With that in mind, he announced that the next meeting of City Council has been scheduled for Wednesday, September 7, at 7 p.m. [NOTE: The September 7th meeting of City Council was subsequently cancelled.]
