The CHLPC meeting was brought to order at 5:30 with distribution of recent Roster. (Please add this email address: PhyllisSansone@gmail.com)

Minutes from January 16, 2013 were approved.
Arland gave the Treasurer's Report: $22,286.56 in account.

Presentation and questions about recently-arrived Faust Park buildings by Jesse Francis, curator.
He showed slides of the Fenton structure from 1910 - 1920. Half was Ludwigs General Store and half a buggy repair shop. The process of cutting the building into 14 segments and removing them to Faust Park was described. Unusual items were found about the construction and fixtures like giant nails and a grinding stone. The sections will remain in storage at the park until an architect and engineer are financed to design the reconstruction in original colors.
The CHLPC voted to contribute $1,000 to the St. Louis County Historic Sites Foundation to help with reconstruction, once we verify that the Foundation is a 501C3.

Mark Leach explained that his Chesterfield archeology book has information from the mounds circumvented by the 141 extension, from Gateway Academy site and the Dampier Site. The book is available at Amazon.com. All profits from Amazon go to local archeology and historic and landmark groups.
The CHLPC voted to purchase 100 books at the author price of $4.82 which we would sell at City Hall and other locations for $15. That profit goes to CHLPC.

The Timeline poster was presented by Bill England and discussed, with Connie explaining what the City had expected versus what Bill, Ann and George had produced. It was decided that the CHLPC would produce posters showing the historically important events from Indian villages to present events in Chesterfield. We would display these posters, after they are approved by City Hall, in stores and public buildings. We would not concentrate the poster on the 25th Chesterfield Anniversary since we do not know what the City wants as topics, we don't have good pictures, and a redone poster could not be finished before the June 1 event.
The CHLPC voted to pay the printer for the one poster already produced.

Henry showed us a recent artifact acquisition. Sean Sortor was unable to attend but wanted to know if other members were interested in a future Chesterfield museum.

The State Landmarks Preservation Conference on Friday, April 19 was mentioned. If anyone is interested in attending this in Jefferson City, please contact Lynne for a registration form. We need training on how to write up Landmark recommendations. The email vote for CHLPC Recommendation of Landmark status for 16636 Old Chesterfield Road was recorded officially.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:40.
