

CHESTERFIELD HISTORICAL COMMISSION
MINUTES
June 9, 2010

Joan Schacht
Shawn Seymour
Jane Durrell
Suzie Marx

Bob DeFer
Dan Rothwell
Arland Stemme
Ann Chrissos

Bob DeFer called the meeting to order at 7:34 p.m.

The May minutes were approved with the following change: The Book Committee plans to meet on May 20 at Joan's house. (Note: the committee met on May 20.)

FINANCIAL REPORT -- $19,362.18.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Calendar – 5 calendars, 2 Architectural Treasures, 1 cemetery book, 1 coloring book were sold at Faust Park for $60.00. One additional Architectural Treasures book was sold at another time.

Oral History Interview – Joan plans to interview Nancy Greenwood.

Archeology – no report

Book status – The Book Committee is looking at possible publishers. The Independent Publishing Corp. in Manchester, MO will produce an order of 500 books with a colored laminated soft cover for $8.00 per book, a hard cover with a picture for $12.95 per book and a hard cover with a dust jacket for $13.95 per book. There was a brief discussion, but no decision was made, on which would be the best type of cover. Shawn provided contact information for The Donning Company. The Book Committee plans to meet on June 22 at Arland's house at 7:00 p.m.

Current History – Arland gave Joan some newspaper clippings.

OLD BUSINESS

CHC Mission Statement – Shawn will present the proposed Mission Statement to the Planning and Public Works Committee meeting on June 10, 2010.

Old Chesterfield signs – Dan proposed moving the Old Chesterfield marker from the south corner of Don Wiegand's property to the north side of his driveway at the time of the levee construction. The motion passed.

NEW BUSINESS

The Planning and Public Works Committee plans to discuss the Eberwein property and the fate of the buildings located on it at the June 10 meeting.

The meeting adjourned at 8:23 p.m.

The next CHC meeting will be on July 14 at 7:30 p.m. at City Hall

Submitted by Ann Chrissos