Barbara Whitman called the meeting to order at 7:27 p.m.

The October minutes were approved as amended. The change should read: "... 5 calendars were sold at the Hog Hollow Antique Store."

FINANCIAL REPORT: $19,746.91

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Calendar – 33 were sold in October for $165.00. Jane suggested changing the format or style of future calendars. Proposals included using more advertising to cover the printing costs, using one color to save half of the total cost, eliminating the white envelopes, giving the calendars instead of selling them. Bring ideas to the February meeting for further discussion.

Oral History Interviews – no report

Archeology – no report

Current History – no report

Book – the ISBN hasn't yet arrived, the book manuscript has been taken to the printer, the down payment check needs to be requested

OLD BUSINESS

Barb will review the printer's contract and request the check.

NEW BUSINESS

Jane will send a thank you letter to the Wetzel family for the donation of their family cradle. The cradle is presently on loan at Faust Park.

The Bayer family donated a drop leaf table and two chairs to Wildwood Historical Society. The Society has offered these items to CHC. A storage place is needed and displaying them at Faust Park was suggested.

Mike Geisel has offered storage space in a shed at the Public Works facility for CHC items.

A vice-president is needed.

A place for the December party/meeting was discussed. Arland suggested bringing snacks to the City Hall meeting room.

The meeting adjourned at 8:15 p.m.
