Planner I Toni Hunt summarized the issues being evaluated by the Department, noting the recommendation this matter be held until the Planning Commission Meeting of April 24, 1995.

A motion to hold this matter was made by Commissioner Domahidy and seconded by Commissioner Casey.

Issues Added to List

- Department should give some thought to the future of Nardin Drive in the area of this project. Should Nardin Drive continue to be residential, as it is now, or be considered as some type of non-residential usage.
- If Nardin Drive doesn't remain residential, would this development fit in with whatever the future of the area would be.
- Commission should consider the petitioner's request, noting this was the only ground available to them at this time. The decision regarding the future of the Nardin Drive residential portion is for those residents to work out.
- The Department was requested to obtain the brochure/pictures Mr. Jackson stated were available for the Hampton Inn, depicting more color choices.
- The Commission and Department needs to be sensitive to the feelings of residents of Nardin Drive.

The motion to hold passes by a voice vote of 7 to 0.

- G. Correspondence from the City Attorney concerning political signs.

Director Duepner summarized City Attorney Beach's letter, noting the Planning and Zoning Committee requested the Ordinance be amended. The Department recommends a motion be approved to hold a public hearing on this matter.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

- A. Ordinance Review Committee - No Report.
- B. Architectural Review Committee - No Report
- C. Site Plan/Landscape Committee

Committee Chairman Kirchoff noted the Committee didn't have a sufficient number of members present to have an official meeting, but they discussed a few items which resulted in some nominal adjustments in wording. He suggested the Committee members get together after tonight's meeting to decide whether they want to make these changes, send out information to everyone, or have an additional meeting.

D. Comprehensive Plan Committee

Committee Co-Chairman Domahidy noted they are finalizing the West Area Study document.

E. Procedures and Planning Committee - No Report

Chairman McGuinness asked for input regarding the Planning Commissioners Workshop.

Commissioner Broemmer noted he thought, from a general sense, it was good. He personally didn't get much out of it, or thinks it was that great, but on the whole he thinks it was a good workshop.

Commissioner Casey noted he thought Mr. Joe Hanke did an excellent job, the content was good, and it was a good workshop.

Chairman McGuinness noted it is amazing to find out that a number of other Planning Commissions aren't provided written reports.

Commissioner Casey noted he believes we are fortunate in Chesterfield to have the Planning Department Staff that we do and the job they do for the Commission.

Chairman McGuinness noted they asked if the Commission has ever been involved in helping with the budget for the Planning Department. She appointed a Budget Committee of: Commissioner Casey, Commissioner Bly and herself.

The meeting adjourned at 7:55 p.m.
