ARTS CONTRACT BETWEEN THE CITY OF CHESTERFIELD, MISSOURI AND CHESTERFIELD ARTS, INC.

This Arts Contract ("Contract"), made and entered into on this _____ day of December, 2007, by and between the City of Chesterfield (hereinafter referred to as "City") and the Chesterfield Arts, Inc., a Missouri Not-for-Profit Corporation (hereinafter referred to as "CAI").

The City, by and through its City Council, enters into this agreement with CAI for the purpose of providing quality and diverse programming of the visual and performing arts; to promote public art; and to provide arts education in the City of Chesterfield, Missouri and related events under the terms and conditions described herein.

NOW THEREFORE in consideration of the promises, agreements, covenants, and warranties set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Section 1. Scope of Services.

CAI shall perform the following services that shall be available to all the residents of the City during 2008:

A. Visual Arts. CAI will promote the visual arts through exhibitions at the CAI gallery facility and as a community outreach program at the Sachs Branch Library. Exhibitions include partner programs with regional organizations and various area schools. (approx. 12 total exhibitions/yr)

B. Educational programs. CAI will host an array of educational classes, workshops and programs throughout the year for children and adults, including a new writers program for 2008.

C. Performing Arts. CAI will present a wide range of free and charged admission performances at its partner venues throughout the community including:

Music at Bonhomme: (2) annual performances performed at Bonhomme Presbyterian Church. This program will be part of the Art's Alive Series.

Art's Alive: A series of (4) family friendly performances featuring multicultural, theater and dance presentations at various Chesterfield venues including and not limited to Bonhomme Presbyterian Church, Logan College, and others as they apply.

Cabaret Series: CAI will coordinate a series of Cabaret performances in the gallery beginning winter 2008.

D. Community Events. CAI will plan, coordinate and develop art programs and art components for various Community Events as set out below:

Westfield Shoppingtown: CAI will partner on various events with the mall as opportunities arise

City Arbor Day Event: CAI will provide interactive art activity (April)

Art in the Park: A Free community art event featuring an art fair, performances, demonstrations and hands on activities for children and adults

NEW – Make your Mark: An annual community art event featuring a public art component for display in the community (e.g., Metro Bus painting)

E. Public Art. CAI will serve as Resource/Liaison to the City and businesses in the community in the selection and placement of public art. A representative of CAI will attend all meetings of the City of Chesterfield's Arts Commission and be available to assist the City of Chesterfield's Art Commission as needed. CAI will serve as a Liaison for the City with Via Partnership for the preparation and completion of the 2008 Public Art Master Plan.

Section 2. Payment

The City shall pay CAI Seventy Five Thousand Dollars ($ 75,000.00) for services described in Section 1 above. Invoices will be sent and payments will be made to CAI in the amount of $18,750 per quarter (January, April, July, October)

Section 3. Fees For Admission.

CAI will not charge admission fees, entrance fees or other charges for admission to the events outlined in Sections 1 – A, B, and D. CAI may charge reasonable fees for educational classes, workshops and programs and may at times close its gallery space for private fundraising events.

Section 4. No Discrimination In Use or Facilities.

CAI, for itself, successors in interest and assigns, as a part of the consideration hereof, agrees that no person on the grounds of race, color, religion, creed, sex, age, ancestry, national origin, disability or veteran status shall be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of or otherwise be subjected to discrimination in the use and enjoyment of services described in Section 1 above.

Section 5. Representations and Warranties.

In order to induce City to enter into this contract, CAI makes the following representations and warranties:

CAI is a not-for-profit corporation, duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Missouri; CAI has all necessary power and authority to own and transfer its property and to transact the business in which it is engaged; CAI has full power and authority to enter into this contract, to execute and deliver the documents required of CAI herein, and to perform these obligations hereunder.

Section 6. Term.

This Contract shall commence upon execution by the duly authorized representatives of both parties and shall terminate on December 31, 2008 unless sooner terminated by the parties.

Section 7. Legal Relations

No employee, volunteer, board member or officer of CAI shall be deemed to be an independent contractor, employee or volunteer of the City. No liability shall attach to the City or CAI by reason of entering into this Contract and Working Agreement except as expressly provided herein.

Section 8. Notice

All notices and other communications required, permitted, or desired to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be mailed by registered or certified mail, postage pre-paid, return receipt requested, or delivered by hand-delivery against receipt, or delivered by overnight delivery service to the following addresses:
